

IN THE CITY COUNCIL.

Routine Business Transacted Last Evening at the Regular Session.

BOTH BRANCHES ADJOURN EARLY.

Out of Respect to the Memory of the Late Health Officer—Dr. Campbell Appointed to Fill the Vacancy for the Present.

It took a long time last evening for Council to get a quorum in the two chambers, some of the members much preferring to sit on the front steps and enjoy the cool evening air. At a quarter after eight the roll was called and it was found that a quorum had been collected, and business was begun.

Liquor licenses were granted to A. D. Booth and Backus & Kelly. The City Receiver's report shows that $7,294.91 of the fifty cent levy fund, and $18,655.65 of the ten cent levy fund had been collected.

Dr. Campbell was appointed Health Officer, vice P. T. Shearer, deceased, with the privilege of appointing an assistant.

The committee on fire department was authorized to appoint three freeholders to appraise property in the rear of the Vigilant engine house, for alley purposes.

The Board of Public Works returned the claim of John Cooper, on account of no jurisdiction; the claim was referred to the committee on claims, with power to act. The appointment, by City Sergeant Delbrugge, of J. C. Marks and Daniel O'Brien as patrol wagon drivers was confirmed.

The First Branch refused to concur in the acceptance by the Second Branch of the report of the finance committee, granting the commissioners of the compromise loan $300 salary. The City Clerk had been asked to furnish the First Branch with a report of amounts paid on previous similar occasions, and he gave the information that $150 had been formerly paid for the same length of time; hence the refusal of the First Branch to concur. A conference committee was appointed.

The committee on ordinances reported back the

ELECTRIC LIGHT ORDINANCE. The clerk was instructed to make a new deed for a lot in the Peninsular cemetery, the original deed having been lost.

The electric light ordinance was then read by sections. Mr. Capps proposed that in lines 12 and 13 the Bank of the Ohio Valley be inserted. Mr. Maxwell amended by naming the Exchange Bank. The amendment was lost and Mr. Capps's motion carried.

John J. Jones, J. S. Naylor, Hullahen Quarrier, Robert Simpson, J. A. Miller, Gibson Lamb and George S. Feeny were nominated as loan commissioners. The nominations were closed, and a motion was carried to vote for three names, the law requiring one of them to be a Republican. On the first ballot, John J. Jones with 21, and John S. Naylor with 16 votes, were declared elected. Another ballot was taken for the election of the third commissioner, with no result. On a third ballot Robert Simpson was elected. Section 12 was amended by granting the commissioners one-half of one per cent, instead of one-fourth of one per cent. It was decided to hold the special election on Saturday, June 27. The ordinance was then read by its title and passed both branches. A resolution was passed instructing the city engineer to place marks from low water to the top of the wing wall of the Market street bridge.

The committee on police was instructed to inquire as to whether sufficient space could be obtained in the rear of the city building for a patrol wagon house.

BILLS AND PETITIONS. A petition from citizens complaining of the wash from John Welty's saloon was referred to the Board of Public Works.

A petition from Patrick Campbell claiming damages to house from the blasting of the tunnel and the raising of the grade of Wood street, was referred.

A petition asking for an extension of the board walk on Upper Charles street was referred to the Board of Public Works with instructions to act.

A petition from Michael Melarky, who had to pay $24 for laying pipe, was referred with instructions to pay him the amount asked.

In the first branch, the B. & O. switch ordinance was brought up and referred to the committee on railroads.

The following department bills were ordered paid:

The committee on health offered resolutions on the death of Health Officer Shearer, which were read in both branches and adopted by a rising vote, after which, in memory of the deceased, the bodies adjourned.

EXCITEMENT ON WATER.

An Officer Abused for Enforcing the Sunday Law—Several Arrests.

Officer Moran was passing the St. Charles Hotel last evening, when he was met by John Robrecht, the proprietor of the St. Charles Hotel. Mr. Robrecht complained of the way Officer Moran had acted in watching his saloon from the windows of the B. & O. freight car on Sunday. One word brought on another, until finally Mr. Robrecht became so abusive, it is alleged, that Officer Moran placed him under arrest. At this point Max Tannebaum, a son-in-law of Mr. Robrecht, interfered. The officer let the old man go and arrested the young one and took him to the police station, a big crowd following. The larger part of the Robrecht family seem to have been interested in the affair, as warrants for three or four of them were later issued from headquarters.

In Squire Arkle's Court. Yesterday, before Squire Arkle, George Milligan, of North Wheeling, named Mrs. Saddle of cutting his clothes line. Mrs. Saddle countered Mr. Milligan by accusing him of assault. The justice reserved his decision. Trimble, colored, was accused by Mr. Clayton, of the same hue, of assault and battery. Trimble was fined $5 and costs and put under a $100 bond to keep the peace for one year. Jacob Currett was fined $1 and costs for being drunk, and paid the same amount for assisting Constable Laughlin, who arrested him.

Brace Up. There is a prodigious number of persons who feel very much down at the heart just now. All they really need is a dose of St. Patrick's Pills to cleanse and renovate their system. It would do them more good than a dollar bottle of any blood purifier. Sold by druggists.

ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE.

The Fatal Ending of an Italian Family Feud in Brooke County

TO BE INVESTIGATED IN COURT

At Wellsburg, Commencing To-day. Judge Campbell Has Another Murder Trial on His Hands Which May Prove Very Interesting.

The case of Francisco Carnuso, the Italian charged with the murder of his fellow-countryman, Francisco Gallo, at Wheeling Junction on October 27 last, will come up before Judge Campbell at Wellsburg to-day. The regular term of the circuit court of Brooke county convened there Monday. Prosecuting Attorney Hervey will conduct the prosecution, and Hon. J. R. Braddock, G. W. McCleary and D. A. Hindman the defense.

Some trouble may be had in securing a jury, owing to the feeling against the prisoner.

An old feud existed in the Carnuso and Gallo families in Italy. Young Gallo came to this country in October last and met Carnuso in Pittsburgh. The latter promised him work if he would accompany him to Steubenville, Ohio. They boarded a train and came to Wheeling Junction, where they got off. Carnuso led the way and Gallo followed him to the top of the hill above the junction. The former then told him that he meant to kill him for what he had done in the old country, and deliberately pulling a revolver, shot him dead. The murderer then escaped, but was finally captured at Lock Haven, Pa., and brought back to Wellsburg, where, at the last term of court, the grand jury found an indictment against him for murder in the first degree.

THE NEW RESORT.

"Belmont Park" to Open Next Sunday. Great Western Band.

Capt. Lee Anshutz was in the city yesterday and was interviewed by an INTELLIGENCER reporter. The captain has secured the steamer Jolly Bros. for the season, and she will tow a magnificent floating palace, capable of safely carrying 500 persons. The Great Western Band, of Pittsburgh, has been secured, and will go down on the first trip of the boat each day and return on the last trip at night, thus affording dancing both on the boat and at the park.

As will be seen advertised in to-day's issue, there will be a picnic at Belmont Park Friday, June 12, for the purpose of organizing a lodge of Jr. O. U. A. M. The steamer Jolly Bros. and floating palace will leave Martin's Ferry at 8 a. m., Wheeling at 9 a. m., Bellaire and Benwood at 10 a. m. for the park. Round trip tickets will be twenty-five cents and admission to the park twenty-five cents.

The captain states that the park will positively open next Sunday, June 14, and that the only charge made will be twenty-five cents for the round trip—none for admission or dancing.

GETTING VERY METEOROLOGICAL.

One of the Signs of Progress which home folks are apt to overlook.

A Wheeling man who is on the road most of the time, was in town yesterday, and an INTELLIGENCER reporter found him standing and gazing in admiration at the front of a new business block. Said he with a good deal of enthusiasm:

"Say, your big boom INTELLIGENCER made a great showing for Wheeling, but the town makes a greater showing. Every time I come home I am more and more impressed with the fact that a new era is opening for the old town. I have been in almost every town of equal size with Wheeling in the United States and Canada, and one thing struck me with new force to-day that speaks volumes for the city's progress. That is the fact that there is more plate glass in Wheeling than in any town of her size on this continent. If you find a man who has traveled much who names a town that has as much plate glass in business houses as Wheeling in proportion to population, I will stand treat. The improvement I can see every time I come home after a trip of six months or so is not apt to impress a man who is on the streets every day, for the reason that the changes grow on him gradually. I find the town more and more like a big city every time I see her. This time I find new business fronts that would be a credit to the biggest city in the land, new blocks that are not excelled outside of a very few large cities, and a new move on the people generally. It almost seems like a new town. Don't forget my plate glass proposition: You ask traveling men if Wheeling doesn't surpass any city of her size in the size of her plate glass fronts and their number."

COAXED THE OLD MAN OFF.

Mrs. Parker, who Figured here Several Months ago, Appears in a new Role.

Last evening Mrs. "Dr." Parker was complained of in Squire Davis's court by Mrs. John Husseman, of McCulloch street, East Wheeling, who accused her of enticing her husband, John Husseman, away from home, as she alleges for the purpose of getting some hold on property that he owns.

Last year "Dr." Parker and the woman who was represented to be his wife, and who claimed to be the widow of Stephen Foster, the famous song writer, and to have a large estate coming to her in Cincinnati, came here in a houseboat, and Parker went about selling what he called honey. He pretended to have a farm in the country where the bees were kept. He was arrested for selling adulterated food, and it was proven that he made the honey out of glucose and water, with perhaps other ingredients. He served a term in jail. While he was durand yile his wife had a room at John Husseman's. She tried to get John to go on Parker's bail bond, but Mrs. Husseman protested and had her way.

Mrs. Husseman told Squire Davis yesterday that since Parker and the woman went to Pittsburgh, which they did shortly after the "Doctor" got out of jail, Mrs. Parker had several times written to Husseman. On Monday she appeared at Husseman's house and stayed awhile, much to Mrs. Husseman's displeasure. When she left, the old man left with her and had not returned up to a late hour last evening. Mrs. Husseman wanted to swear out some kind of a process to bring him back. She was firmly of the opinion that the woman's purpose in enticing him to Pittsburgh was to get some hold on him by which she could cheat him out of the property he owns on McCulloch street.

Husseman, his wife says, lacks but two months of being sixty years old, and the Parker woman has a bad influence over him. Mrs. Husseman left without her process, but is bent on having her husband home and visiting some dire penalty on Mrs. Parker.

COUNT SCHIFFLER AGAIN

Arrested on a Charge of Enticing Young Girls Into a Vacant House.

CHICAGO, June 9.—Albert Engel, sometimes known as Count Schiffler, appeared in a police court this morning, charged with a unique and comical procedure. It was in evidence that he secured keys to a vacant house in a fashionable quarter of Wabash avenue, into which he enticed young women on representation that he was a merchant from China and had a lot of valuable silks which he was giving away, being unable to dispose of them. Having got his victims in doors he would make indecent proposals to them and, if he met with resistance, would flourish a murderous-looking knife and threaten to cut them in pieces and put them in a large trunk which he had in one of the rooms. Two of his victims broke away and ran screaming to the neighbors for protection. One of them subsequently disappeared, but the other was in court this morning and on her evidence the prisoner was fined heavily and held to await further developments. Engle is a stylish fellow about forty years of age. This is not his first adventure. A year or two ago he was arrested for writing love letters to and annoying a fashionable young lady in this city.

CHICAGO, June 9.—E. D. While he was in the dining car enroute the bag disappeared and he has been unable to get any trace of it since.

And the Pennsylvania Grocer might have added that the very finest, purest and most healthful ginger snaps are those made by Marvin. All grocers keep them. Don't take any other, was
